In Casablanca, Morocco... many people in the LGBTQI community have been outed without their consent. This has put a lot of people in danger!

DAMN!

I didn't know that so many people were queer!

SHAME!

Text from mom: People are saying that you are a boy... I don't understand... what is this?

Why?

You think you could hide?

I heard you are queer.

Weird!

I saw your pics online. Is it true?

There is a lot of psychological suffering due to fear from friends, family, community members.

SHAMEFUL!

SINFUL!

NOT NOW!

I was not ready to come out yet.

What am I going to do now?
DISEASED

THIS IS NOT HUMAN!

GIVE ME ANSWERS!

WHO WOULD SHE DO THIS?

I DON'T BELIEVE MY EYES.

THIS IS MINE.

FOUND OUT!

I DID NOT EXPECT THIS.

TOO!

WHERE'S THE RAGE?

I FEEL SO ANGRY.

I CAN'T EVEN IF MY FAMILY WILL ACCEPT ME FOR WHO I AM.

DO THEY EVEN KNOW WHAT THEY MEAN?

I AM SO SCARED THAT MY FAMILY OR FRIENDS WILL FIND OUT THAT I AM GAY.

DO THEY EVEN UNDERSTAND MY IDENTITY?
Hello! Can I please talk to a counsellor?

Now you can access health services online!

Hello! I am calling to inform you about mental health services online!

You can make your future appointments within minutes!

Thank you for the information!

We need to be working with everybody in the community to control the reported gender-based violence cases.

The more we are united, the better the communication will be to various layers of the community!
